 The three act comedy, "Confusion," will be put on next Friday and Saturday evenings in the Robertson opera house, with Frederick J. Long, late of the Union theatre, New York, in the leading comedy role of Uncle Christopher.
 The performances will be for the benefit of the hospital. As some of the members of the caste are leaving for the north about the 25th, it was necessary to put the play on without longer notice.
 The Saskatchewan Herald says a large number of horses, the most of them of a good class, have been gathered here for the Edmonton trade, and will be put on the road for the west in a few days. Among the shippers are Jackson and Craig, the Messrs. Dewar and R. Spence, of Breslayor, who will be the first to pull out, but there are other large and complete outfits that will be ready to follow when the grass starts.

PLAYERS: Messrs Bell and Reid, of Calgary, who started down the Athabasca last fall en route for the Yukon via MacKenzie river, came in last week from Grand Rapids, where they were in camp all winter. They undertook the journey in a Peterborough canoe, but found it utterly unfit for navigation in rapids. They have come out for additional supplies and will resume their journey in a more suitable craft. They were prospectors against attempting to run the rapids without guides and advise them not to follow the ice out, but to wait until shore ice has melted away, when the channels can be better seen and selected.

P. took a lenient view of the case and let him off on payment of $5 and costs, in all $8.25.
 An Ottawa item says: Captain Urquhart, killed by the Derivies yesterday, was for three years one of the aides to Earl Aberdeen. He joined his regiment two years ago. He was a gentleman highly regarded, and had many friends here and in Toronto and other Canadian cities. He was 38 years of age, and served in the Egyptian war of 1882 and with the Nile expedition two years later, being the recipient of stars and medals for his services there and on the Sudan frontier. Capt. Urquhart was with Earl Aberdeen on the latter's visit to Edmonton.

CREAMERY MEETINGS.

C. Marker, inspector of government creameries, came up on Wednesday's train for the purpose of holding meetings through out the country in the interests of the creamery industry. Meetings were held at the Surgeon and Poplar lake, on Friday, of which full reports have not yet been received. A meeting was also held at Fort Saskatchewan on Saturday night.

EDMONTON REAL ESTATE.

There is a big demand for real estate in Edmonton now and town lots are changing hands rapidly, not the changing caused by the shuffling of speculators, but legitimate transfers for the purpose of investing capital and opening up business concerns. Many business houses are proceeding to erect new buildings or enlargements to their present premises and, generally, work in the building line is booming.

CLEARING GRAND RAPIDS.

D. McCallum and W. Clarke, who were engaged by the town to blast away the obstructing boulders at Grand Rapids, returned from their trip on Friday night having successfully completed their contract.
 The point worked on was the centre of the right hand channel where three boulders, which were the chief obstructions of navigation, were cleared entirely away and four others blown partly out. One of the stones cleared out, Mr. Clarke considers, is well worth the total sum expended as it had always been a menace to boatmen. With the blasting done the work of running the rapids will be made comparatively easy and in high water full boat loads should be able to go over in safety. In medium water a half load can be taken over, but in both cases a guide is advisable if the rapids are to be run rapidly and safely. Mr. Clarke is of the opinion that the Athabasca will not break up until about the 25th.

A SUBSTANTIAL RECOGNITION.

The thoughtfulness and appreciation of the Presbyterian congregation found expression in a gift to their pastor of a very handsome top buggy and set of harness. "The Manse" values the motive and the method of expression. The following address accompanied the unostentatious gift:
 Rev. D. G. McQueen, B. A., Edmonton:
 REV. AND DEAR SIR,—We, as representing the members and adherents of the Edmonton Presbyterian church, are convinced that the conveyance, which has so long done service in taking you in and out among us, is now no longer suitable, and have pleasure in asking your acceptance of one which, we think, will be better adapted for the purpose. And, we trust that, often accompanied in it by your much loved helpmate, it will for many years be useful to you in the continuance of those visits which have hitherto been so faithfully given, and which have been much blessed and very highly prized by us all.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, APRIL 18TH, 1918

SMUT IN SEED.

A circular has been recently issued by the grain buyers of South Edmonton, dealing with the smut in seed question. The following is a copy of the circular:

The immense damage caused by smut, and the subsequent trouble and difficulty experienced in handling smutted wheat, has assumed such proportions, that the Winnipeg Grain and Produce Exchange considers it of the utmost importance that the subject of smut should be brought to the attention of every grain grower in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, in order that, so far as possible, there should not be a repetition of last year's experience. Our market is no longer local. We now have to seek British and continental markets, and the foreign buyer already looks with distrust on our grain, owing to the deplorably smutted condition of the crop. With the remedy in his hands no farmer should prove untrue to his own interests, or the interests of the country, by allowing this trouble to continue. The principle cause of the evil is the sowing of frost-killed and other poor seed, and the failure to treat even apparently good seed for smut before sowing. Take the following illustration of the loss entailed by using poor seed:

Say a farmer seeds 100 acres. If with frost-killed or other poor seed, the cost will be 175 bushels at 50c. = $87.50; when good grain will cost—133 bushels at 75c. = $100, or a difference of $12.50 for a 100 acres. Now experience has proved, from actual tests at the experimental farms at Brandon and Indian Head, that the loss last year by sowing poor seed on 100 acres, was, at a very low estimate, $250.

During the past year 1897, the first season that Alberta has exported wheat, it has suffered serious loss from smut. Of the estimated 300,000 bushels marketed in Edmonton district fully two-thirds has been rejected. This wheat has been sold at an average of 10c per bushel less than would have been realized on the same wheat free of smut, and therefore there is a direct loss to the district of $20,000 approximately, in addition to the reduced yield. The matter of loss in the latter respect cannot be estimated, but in some instances half the growing crop has been found to be smut.

Remedy: Choose the best and soundest seed you can procure, and soak it for ten minutes in brine of the ordinary strength used for pickling pork (that is in which an egg or a potato will float), stir the seed well and skim off the light grains, smut balls and chaff, which rise to the surface. Then take out the seed and immerse in a solution composed of one pound of bluestone, dissolved in a pailful of warm water, (for every seven bushels of seed to be treated). The seed may be placed in a basket or sack, and plunged into the bluestone mixture, where it should be kept until every grain has been thoroughly wetted. Now, drain the seed; and dust it with lime until the grains are white, and they will dry quickly; while germination will be greatly assisted.

The bluestone treatment for smut should be applied to oats as well. In the case of oats one pound of bluestone to eight bushels is generally used.

This remedy is simple! Do not fail to use it! See that your local merchant has plenty of bluestone, demand a certificate as to quality, and get your own supply as soon as possible. Do not delay or the merchants supply may be exhausted.

THE CHILKOOT AVALANCHE.

Skagway, Alaska, April 9.—The horror on the Dyea trail is growing in magnitude hourly. As the work of rescue proceeds it becomes more apparent that many more lives were lost than was at first thought possible. It is now believed that between 50 and 100 men and women were killed by the avalanche.

Many bodies will never be recovered until the summer sun melts the snow and ice that now bury them from sight.

Two or three thousand men are working in relays of as many as can stand side by side, shoveling away the debris in search of the dead and dying.

Twenty-two dead bodies have been recovered and identified, and 25 have been taken out alive.

Seventy-seven employees of the Chilkoot railway and tram company, who went up to the summit on the morning of the slide to work, are missing, and it is feared they are among the lost. It is estimated that 10,000 tons of outfit are buried under the snow and ice. There were several smaller slides before the death dealing avalanche was started.

About two in the morning a small slide occurred which buried several cabins. The alarm was spread, and many people were endeavoring to work back to Sheep Camp when the big one came. The snowstorm was blinding and crowds were coming down by the aid of a rope when overtaken. The exact location is given at two and a half miles above Sheep Camp, and 100 yards above the Oregon Improvement Company's power house. Here an immense gorge rises at a very steep incline into the hills, and it was down this the avalanche came.

The telephone office here has been thronged all day and night with friends anxious to get some word of friends believed to have been in the disaster. Many people have gone from this city and Dyea to Sheep Camp to aid in the rescue. It is believed that when the full returns are in the dead will number nearer one hundred than fifty.

J. A. Raines, of Maine, who was fortunate enough to be dug out alive, says: "All of a sudden I heard a loud report and instantly felt myself going swiftly down the hill. Looking around I saw many others buried, some with their feet out and head buried out of sight, and others vice versa. When I struck the bottom I tried to run, but the snow caught me and I was instantly buried beneath thirty feet of snow and rock, being on the verge of death by suffocation when I was reached by the rescuers."

RAILWAY BILL PASSED.

An Ottawa despatch of the 13th, says: The railway committee of the house of commons this morning passed bill number twenty-three authorizing J. J. Shalleross, M. St. John, of Victoria; A. L. Clark, of Yukon, and John Connor, of St. John, N. B., to construct tramways from Lindeman to Bennett, around White Horse rapids, and past Five Finger rapids on the Lewis river, to overcome these obstructions. Two years were given in which to complete the work although many of the committee thought twelve months enough.

Another bill incorporating the Miles Canon and White Horse tramway company was passed.

Nicol Kingsmill, Q. C., promoted a bill authorizing the Calgary & Edmonton railway company to construct a spur from Calgary to Macleod connecting with the Crow's Nest pass railway. The bill passed.

Judge Clarke explained to the committee, bill number forty-six respecting the C. P. R. It authorizes the company to construct two pieces of railway, five or six miles in length, between Wabigon on the main line and Rainy River, part of which route consists of water stretches. The bill also authorized the company to construct branches anywhere in cases where the ways form a part of the through route. This power is applied to British Columbia mining districts. Objection was taken by Mr. Morrison, that under these powers the C. P. R. might crowd out the Kaslo and Slocan railway.

Hon. Mr. Blair finally satisfied the committee by proposing an amendment limiting the extensions to ten miles and making the applications public, subject to the governor-in-council and that plans be filed. The bill passed.

A bill was taken up giving the C. P. R. road, known as the Nakusp and Slocan railway, running from Nakusp to Sandon, B. C., power to construct branches thirty miles in length. Mr. Morrison opposed it as designed to cripple and ultimately destroy the Kaslo and Slocan road. Judge Clarke consented to limit the power to the branches of the ten miles, but Mr. Morrison asked that the bill stand over until a similar application pending before the railway committee of the privy council be disposed of. Granted.

A bill respecting the Brandon and Southwestern railway was called but stood over. Hon. Mr. Blair read a petition received from one hundred settlers in the vicinity protesting against the extension of the charter.

THEIR LEADER ABSCONDED.

An item is going the rounds of the press to the effect that there are 17 Montrealers at Edmonton who are anxiously awaiting the arrival of Mr. J. C. Hoguard, with money and supplies to take them to the Klondike. They each deposited $250 with Mr. Hoguard at Montreal, but as yet have only had transportation to Edmonton in return.

Inquiry at the camp of the Klondikers here elicits the fact that Hoguard represented himself to the company in Montreal as a capitalist who desired to put some money in the project, and being possessed of a smooth manner, succeeded in getting a considerable sum of money from the company, or the members of the expedition, for the purpose of purchasing the outfit. Hoguard and his wife were to accompany the party, but decamped for parts unknown. The expedition was already on the road and after their arrival here they discovered that the outfit which Hoguard was supposed to have purchased had never been bought. The absconding Hoguard was traced to New York. A representative of the company is expected in this week for the purpose of squaring matters with the men here.

TESLIN LAKE RAILWAY.

A despatch from Ottawa to the Winnipeg Tribune says that a rumor gains currency in the corridors that the government will propose a money grant to build the Teslin lake railway. Many members think the government should not do anything further, and just leave things as they are, and throw the responsibility on the senate for any failure or loss of trade consequent upon throwing out the bill.

PURE
INDIAN TEA

Even if by using double the quantity of tea, one can get the strength yet no amount will produce the fine flavor. Bulk teas lose their fine qualities through evaporation, but Ram Lal's Pure Indian Tea comes in air tight packets.

MR. FABIAN'S INVENTION.

Bruno Fabian's invention of a combined boat, cart and sleigh is on exhibition near the post office. The sleigh attachment, being out of season, is not shown. The boat, which is in two sections, is built of heavy zinc and mounted on a substantial carriage for portaging. One section of the boat will fold over on the other and when water is reached both are "unlimbered" and floated with the running gear lashed to the sides. Mr. Fabian claims many things for his boat and is confident it will satisfactorily solve the transportation problem.

THE QUEEN APPEALED TO.

A London despatch says: The Queen Regent of Spain has sent the following autograph letter to the Queen of England, the New York World correspondent learns from a high source, imploring her help. "Queen Maria Christina begs Queen Victoria to use her influence to prevail upon the British government to support Austria and France in an attempt to secure European mediation." This extraordinary step was taken by the Regent because of the cold reception accorded by the British government to the representation of the Spanish ambassador respecting mediation. Queen Victoria immediately forwarded a copy of the Queen Regent's letter to Lord Salisbury, whose policy will not in any way be affected by it. England will tolerate no policy of bolstering up Spanish rule in Cuba. The opinion prevails that the government will be pressed from the liberal benches in the house of commons to recognize the independence of Cuba as soon as the United States does.

MUTUAL PRINCIPLE

Mutual Reserve Again Endorsed!

Extract from letter of

W. J. WASHBURN,

Receiver of Bankers Alliance, of California, and President of East Side Bank.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., March 9, 1898.

To the Policy Holders, Bankers Alliance:

In the performance of my sworn duty as Receiver, and actuated by an honest desire to see your best interests fully protected, we have, after due consideration of all propositions received, decided to sincerely recommend to the policy holders of the Bankers Alliance that they, with as little delay as possible, secure their insurance in the MUTUAL RESERVE FUND LIFE ASSOCIATION OF NEW YORK.

For 17 years this company has had a career of uninterrupted success, standing to-day the fifth largest company in the world on any plan, and the first and foremost of all NATURAL PREMIUM COMPANIES. During the history of the MUTUAL RESERVE it has paid $33,000,000 in death losses and NEVER FAILED TO PROMPTLY PAY AN HONEST CLAIM.

Its cash income during 1897 was over $6,000,000. It now has cash and invested assets of $5,400,000, and a membership of 112,000, representing over $300,000,000 of insurance in force.

It has been examined by the superintendents of 20 States in the last few years and in no instance has an unfavorable report been made with reference to its management or financial condition.

JAMES MARTIN, Manager for N. W. T. EDMONTON, ALBERTA.

New York Life Insurance Company

WHY EVERY MAN SHOULD INSURE IN THE NEW YORK LIFE

BECAUSE:—It is the strongest company in the world.
—It has over two hundred millions in assets.
—It earned for its policy holders last year from interest and rents, $8,801,501.30.
—These interest receipts, $8,801,501.30, exceeded by $400,000 the entire expenses of conducting the Company's business, including commissions for new business and charges of every kind whatsoever.
—Its policies as now issued contain no restriction as to residence, travel or occupation, habits of life or manner of death.
—Its policies cannot be forfeited after three years, and, if allowed to lapse, the insured will receive either a paid up policy or extended insurance, as he may elect.
—You can borrow from the Company at 5 per cent. per annum after your policy has been three years in force.
—You do not have to die to win. If you live 10, 15 or 20 years you can settle your policy in any way that best suits yourself at the time for cash, paid up insurance, annuity or other options.
—You want the very best, the most privileges and the fewest restrictions, whether small or great, and the New York Life's accumulation policy furnishes them all.
—It furnishes to its agents and the insured public a detailed statement where every dollar of its money is spent and the rate of interest it is earning, and this statement is endorsed by 82 Governments.

Machines on view at the Skating Rink buildings. Very neat and light to pack in knock down shape.

A. E. POTTER.

South Omaha, Neb., March 1, 1898.

To whom it may concern:

Speaking of A. E. Potter, of Edmonton, as a practical miner, I have only to speak of personal experience. The washing apparatus which he designed and manufactured for me last season, 1897, gave entire satisfaction. It was capable of most thoroughly washing, separating and saving the gold and black sand of 1 cubic yard gravel and/or separating stones from pay dirt first, then the gold, and lastly the black sand.

They offer to repay the government by paying one dollar per ton on all freight carried. The Dominion government will also be asked for monetary aid.

ATHABASCA LANDING.

Geographically, there are other places as important as the Landing for starting for the gold fields, but to people here none are more so. A visit here is all that is necessary to convince one of the truth of this statement.

Less than three months ago the "Klondiker" upon descending the winding slope leading to the river bottom which constitutes the location of the village, was the Hudson Bay fort warehouses and out-buildings, the Athabasca, saw mill and English church, the police barracks, two houses, a few shacks, and train dogs galore; high hills, snow two feet deep and all is told. To-day the scene is changed. The scores of white tents that dot the hill side and the river bottom almost succeed in sustaining the snow impression of two months back. The Hudson's Bay Company have surveyed a town site from a portion of their property and shops of different kinds are being erected so the north bound traveller will be able to replenish his stock. The stage line between Edmonton and the Landing has been bringing the mail once a week to gladden the hearts of an eager crowd, composed of many nationalities, who gather every stage night to hear the news of the outside world. All kinds and shades of people are here, old and young, big and little. A Hollander, six feet seven inches tall, is the longest man in camp, and a French-Canadian, four feet six inches, holds the hot cross bun, made at the local bakery, and presented on Good Friday to the smallest on record.

The sojourners here have fallen into the habit of christening the different sections of the settlement after reasons of their own, as follows: East and West Chicago are places or camping grounds east and west of the village proper and so-called because of the Chicago men there who outnumber their fellow campers four to one. The north town is on the north side of the river where Woods & McNeil have their boat building yard, and several other parties—mostly from Ontario—are camped. There is only one street and that revals in the name of "Fifth Avenue," and the visitor upon walking up the trail leading from the river will notice a sign upon a spruce tree, painted in red paint, which tells him that he is on the bon ton street of the town. Sturgeon's landing is further up the river and is named after its first settler, Jim Sturgeon. This location is familiarly known as "The warmest baby in the bunch," and it is certainly entitled to its name as it catches the first sun in the morning and has among its campers a colored man who sings exceedingly well the popular song from which it takes its name. A row of shacks southeast of the H. B. fort enjoys the distinction of being the first thing in the village to resemble a street and it bears the title of Bohemian Row. Every shade of opinion, on topics ranging from gold mining down to the qualities of pain killer cordial, is here nightly discussed. Ten different languages are spoken among the tenants of this row, and they boast among their number, an artist, two miners, three carpenters, two ex-tramps, one actor, one ex-policeman from Boston, one reformed temperance lecturer, an Englishman who plays the banjo very well, one boat builder, one butcher, two old men occupation unknown, destination Peel river, and seventeen dogs of every species known to science. To reside in Bohemian Row is considered an honor and room is at a premium. All things considered the Landing is about as orderly a place as a man would care to live in. Bishop Young, of the English church, is a very familiar figure and can be seen daily walking from camp to camp, where his council, both spiritual and practical, is well given and received. The church is well filled every service night by men of all denominations.

The different steamboat companies are busy on their boats. The "Sparrow" is very nearly complete and will be without a doubt a splendid boat, built on graceful lines. She is 65 feet over all, twelve foot beam, six feet depth of hold and 60 horse, power screw engines, with Scotch marine boilers. The Alaska Mining & Trading Co.'s yard is a very busy place and work on their boats is being pushed ahead rapidly. Their machinery comes from Chicago. Mr. John Fraser has a staff of men working on the Wilson & Macdonald boats and work is being pushed along with all speed. Their machinery is from the C. H. Willard Co., of Chicago, and the Polson Iron Works of Toronto. Hundreds of other boats, after the York, the scow, and sturgeon head models are being built by the smaller parties. There are also seven or eight steam launches here, and a busier scene it is hard to find. The appearance of the ice indicates a break shortly, and the 600 or 700 men sojourning here are eagerly waiting its move, when some of their pent up excitement can be got rid of. From present appearances, and figuring from the number who have come in lately, 2,000 people are likely to pass here during May and June. There is plenty of room for thousands more. The 600 or 700 who are here are not a drop in the bucket. Of all things that go to show whether the route is likely to be a success or not, are the comments of those who, having gone some hundreds of miles, have had ample time to size up the situation and find out from reliable sources as to its practicability. These comments are unanimously that the success of the route is a foregone conclusion. Quite 200 of the many here have been turned this way owing to the crush at the coast, and these, together with those who came for other reasons, are perfectly satisfied with their choice.

C. GALLAGHER,

GOOD, IF TRUE.

TACOMA, April 12.—The greatest Klondyke strikes since Hunker creek was found were made in February. They consist of fabulously rich bench claims on the sides of Hopkins gulch, and between Little and Big Skookum gulches. Details are brought down by Jack O'Gara and Robert Hisey, who left Dawson on March 10. O'Gara reports that the new bench diggings are proving as rich as the bed rock of the best creeks. He says that nuggets of pure gold, ranging in value from $100 to $594 have been dug out of the side hills of the two Skookums and that the like of it was never seen before. The gold runs in size from coarse gold and flaxseed nuggets to chunks of yellow metal nearly as large as a man's hand. O'Gara says the season's output will be thereby doubled, amounting to at least $20,000,000, or 50 tons of gold.

THE YUKON PROBLEM.

TORONTO, April 11.—The Globe says: The propriety of making a direct money grant towards a railway across some portion of Alaska is being urged. We feel sure there will be a strenuous objection throughout the country to any proposition involving a considerable draft on the treasury for a railway into the Yukon country. It looks as if a close watch on developments is about all that the government can do for some time, as far as a railway from the coast is concerned. It may be expected that immediate steps will be taken to gather immediate information with reference to a permanent route into that country from the inland rather than from the coast. Of the inhabitation of the Peace river district there is evidence that deserves to be considered reliable, and in making towards the headwaters of rivers, whose united volume makes the Yukon, the railway would touch watercourses which, during the season of navigation, would bring an enormous amount of territory in touch with civilization.
